Dear Mary,

I guess you will be away and here much longer
but I will always remember the fun we had at the

Concord and Go mountain climbing with me and mine.

Bye, Fay

The Stage

Our school is a stage on which we play our parts, each of us to our own ability. There are times when we miss our cues and need prompting from the sidelines as we prepare for the dress rehearsal to later life — graduation.

An integral part of the "stage" is the faculty who spend many hours rehearsing, cuing, and prompting us so we may one day become directors in our own right.

“The Play’s The Thing”

Shakespeare, Hamlet.

The publication of the 1951 annual is devoted to reviewing the past year's activities, which we have chosen to compare to a play. This play will soon be over for the seniors, but then try-outs for a new play, will be held.

As a play without directors would be a "one-night stand," so would our production be a failure without the guidance of our faculty. During the rehearsal of a play, the directors and the cast must work together just as the faculty and students must cooperate. We seniors are the leading characters now, but our supporting cast, the underclassmen, will soon be coming up to take our place. As the back-stage crew is essential to the development of the play, so the organizations help to put the finishing touches on our production, so that as the curtain falls on the closing action, the Prom, Baccalaureate and Graduation, we may applaud the production of the year!

“To Dad”

We, the seniors of Oregon Community High School, dedicate this annual to Mr. Edward J. Gebhardt because of his great help with our theatrical career during our high school years.

Last year “Dad” Gebhardt was chosen as an Honorary Thespian, a title which he well deserved. His ability with hammer and nails created for us scenery which added a great deal to our little productions.

“Gebby” served three years with the U. S. Marine Corps and received the Purple Heart in the Philippine Island liberation campaign. He came to Oregon in 1946 with his wife, Paula, and his son, Jim. Their small daughter, Kathy Ann, was born a year later.

A regular “nature boy,” this Gebhardt can be found digging in his garden and culturing African violets.

Like many of us, “Dad’s” wish is “to see the day when we can all live together in a peace-loving world so my son and every parent’s children may never have to bear arms against their neighbors.”

Where else have you seen a building as immaculate as ours? We understand why visitors often remark about the cleanliness and neatness they find here--an environment which is cheerful and more inducive to work. Our faithful and willing janitors, Mr. Speed and Mr. Masters, are certainly to be praised for their never-ending care of our school.

"Onward Marching Blue And Gold, Seeking Knowledge New And Old"

The year 1951 is the climax of four successful years in high school. We realize we have made many mistakes, but we have kept on trying--one of our greatest rewards came in our junior year when we produced "Captain Applejack" and received the praise of Mr. Kiest for our cooperation.

Dick Cline led us in our new venture during 1947-48. Nadine Lippert was his assistant and Don Pauls, as secretary, kept a record of our business. Our financial situation was reported by Carolyn Leigh, our treasurer. We sent Don Hanes and Ronnie Finkbeiner to represent us in the student governing body. Though we were shy and rather uncertain as freshmen, we managed to put on the St. Patrick's Dance with the help of Mr. Gebhardt, Mr. Lutz, and Mr. Nori, our sponsors.

When we were on the second rung of the ladder, we had lost some of our shyness and had more confidence that we would some day reach the top. During this year the girls seemed to have been left out as chiefs of the class. Myron Denekas was our president, Ronnie Finkbeiner our vice president, Frank Noffsinger our secretary, and Bob Jarvis our treasurer. Dick Henderson and Carol Kloeppling voiced our opinion in student council. The Spring Dance was our highlight of the year in which we showed our ability as entertainers. Our sponsors for this successful year were Mr. Kuethe and Mr. Paver.

During the third year of our career we started the Christmas vacation by giving a Dance. We also honored the seniors at the annual junior-senior banquet--their farewell to high school life. We were aided by our sponsors, Miss Webber and Mr. Hannah. We elected Jack Harvath as our president and Bob Jarvis as our vice president. Our secretary and treasurer were June Johnson and Don Pauls, respectively. The representatives to student council were Dick Cline, Nadine Lippert, and Carol Kloeppling.

This year, our fourth and most important, began by our sponsoring the Mixer Dance which helped the freshmen to get acquainted with other students. Soon after this we presented our class play, "Don't Take My Penney" which, during practice seemed to be quite a roit, but under Mr. Diven's direction it finally developed into a successful production. Our president for the final year was Dick Henderson and our vice president was Dick Cline. We chose as our secretary, June Johnson, and as our treasurer, Bob Doeden. Mrs. Shetter and Mrs. Donaldson were always ready to give us assistance. In student council, Myron Denekas and Jim Holder represented us, while Dick Cline held the important position as president of this group. What would this year have been without the publication of the annual, the spring concert, and the prom? Then came the great conclusion of our four years at O. C. H. S.--marching down the aisle to the strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" and then on to play our future roles in world society.

Junior Class

This year we were finally full-fledged upperclassmen. It sure felt good, but at the same time it brought on new and bigger responsibilities. It was through the help of Mr. Schmidt and Miss Webber that we were able to meet these responsibilities. We began the year by electing officers. Bob Snapp led us in our struggle, assisted by Bob Bergner as vice president, Joan Carman as secretary, and Joan Carr as treasurer. Jerry Medlar and Bob Johnson made our opinions known in student council.

Our boys were very active in sports throughout the year with eleven boys on the varsity football team, seven on the varsity basketball team, and five on the junior varsity basketball team.

In the middle of the year we sponsored the Christman Dance. What a success! It sure was worth the effort we put in to it. Things calmed down for a while, but then came our big test--the banquet for the seniors. However, much to our surprise, everything went along wonderfully well. A beautiful ending to a very eventful and happy year.

Sophomore Class

Here we are, 54 strong, smiling sheepishly as we complete our "foolish year." We are looking forward to next year when we will become the prominent upperclassmen.

During the past year our heroes displayed their athletic ability--nine of the boys played on the fresh-soph basketball team and eleven were on the lightweight football team. David Haas, Dick Williams, Bob Adamson, Otto

Dick, and Bob Hanes were on the track squad.

Our sponsors, Mr. Nelson and Mr. Kuethe, were a great help when it came to putting on our dance. Bob Adamson, as our president, Bob Hanes, as vice president, Myrna Lippert, as secretary, and Joan Hill, as treasurer, were our leaders; but it took the entire group to accomplish our aims.

Freshman Class

Think we were shy? Think we were quiet? ---I should say not! Even though we sometimes got in the wrong classrooms, we weren't embarrassed--we would just turn an enviable shade of red and run for the door!

Thomas Elliott was the president of the "mighty but small" freshmen, David Johnson was our vice president, Louis Reimer our treasurer, and our secretary was Robert Rees. Jill Ingraham and Richard Johnston went to Student Council every Monday morning as representatives for our classmates, 74 in all!

Mr. Pfefferkorn and Mr. Gebhardt had a large group to work with in sponsoring the St. Patrick's Dance. The boys were active in school sports--10 played basketball, 16 went out for football, and several of the fellows added their ability at track meets.

Student Council

President . . . . . Richard Cline
Vice President . . . . . Jim Holder
Secretary-Treasurer . . . . . Anna Fruin

Our little group of nine members, representing over 200 students, met in the inner office every Monday morning to discuss problems which concerned the classes and organizations. The age-old problem of admitting "outsiders" to school dances arose once more. We compromised on this and invited them to several dances including the Prom.

We sponsored the annual Student Rule Day again this year. Jack Harvath was chosen by popular vote to be principal and Carolyn Leigh took over Betty Brunner's duties as secretary.

'Pep Club

The Pep Club and the Pep Band combined their vim and vigor to boost the morale of our athletic heroes. The Pep Club sponsored their annual Homecoming Dance and the All-Sports Banquet.

Every Friday morning we practiced our cheers under the leadership of the cheerleaders. Carolyn Leigh, as president, conducted the meetings and Shirley Elliott performed the duties of vice president. Our secretary-treasurer was Uelene Etnyre and our social chairman was Pat DePorter.

The staffs were under the direction of Phyllis Fisher, our editor-in-chief; Carolyn Leigh, literary editor; Joan Cattoen, managing editor; Carol Kloeppling, photography editor; and June Johnson, business manager. We are deeply grateful for Mrs. Shetter's supervision.

Our fun-packed and eventful year began in September with the initiation of the new members. We managed to squeeze in a wiener roast with the F.F.A. boys before the weather got too cold. In January we sponsored the After-Game Dance. The selling of pencils and cards helped to pay for our fun and also for the letters we received at the end of the year. In the course of events we adopted a foreign family to whom we sent packages. Some of the girls wrote to pen-pals in Europe.

We were all very surprised and honored when one of our energetic members, Juanita Eshbaugh, was elected to a district office at the House of Delegates meeting. Juanita was among 100 other girls competing for the honor.

Phyllis Fisher, our president, and Miss Webber, our sponsor, worked together to promote ideas to make the organization more interesting for us. Our vice president was Marlene Geiken, our secretary was Vivian Shull, and Barbara Janssen served as treasurer.

F. F. A.

We are the Future Farmers of America, devoted to the idea that better farming constitutes a better country. Don't misunderstand us; we worked, sure, but we also had lots of fun.

This year, following formal and informal initiation we planned a wiener roast with the F.H.A. girls. We entered the judging contest at Dakota, Illinois, our grain team placed third and our poultry team was fourth. We attended the International Livestock Exposition in Chicago and found it very interesting.

Our new sponsor, Mr. Schmidt, helped us out when things got too tough and we really appreciated it. Our president, Tom Carr; vice president; LaVerne Gillespie; secretary, Dana Blobaum; treasurer, John Heng; reporter, Lawrence Long; watch-dog, Dwight Price, helped keep our club active at all times.

Girls' Chorus

Rest--two, three, four, sing---In September we were anything but proud of the noises that we muttered; but it wasn't long until our voices began to blend in pleasing harmony. It was then Miss Holmes decided that we were ready for our big test.

We all participated in giving the Christmas Concert for the school and also the annual Spring Concert which is always very lovely. The Girls' and Mixed Choruses sang for the Teachers' Institute which was held at O.C.H. S. in February.

We take our hats off to Miss Holmes who faithfully worked with us this year.

Vice President . . . . .	Robert Jarvis
Secretary . . . . .	Carolyn Leigh
Treasurer . . . . .	Don Hanes

We are one of the newest of the school organizations, for we were first organized in 1950 by Mrs. Nicholas, the former Carol Hammer, who taught speech and English at O.C.H.S. during 1949 and 1950.

Although our club is still an infant, we have rigid requirements for our future members which consist of executing to the best of our ability one major role or two minor roles in a theatrical production.

At the end of a school year we present awards to the honorary Thespians. Last year they were given to Robert Corcoran, Robert Jarvis, Mrs. Laurie Mann, and Mr. Edward Gebhardt.

Treasurer . . . . .	JACK HARVATH

Being the Disciples of Drama, we feel it only fair to warn you that we are interested in talking about dramatics at this time--and nothing else.

In the past years the Dramatics Club has presented some mighty fine plays and again we all worked together to keep ours on the same scale. We tried to make our play this past year "the best ever."

Our president, Robert Jarvis, is quite a "ham" like the rest of us. He copped some mighty loud applause in "Captain Applejack," "John Loves Mary," and "Don't Take My Penny." Our vice president, Don Williams, is also a man of the theater. His performance in "Don't Take My Penny" was outstanding. Our secretary, June Johnson, who has a preference for maid performances, was a hit in "Captain Applejack" and "Don't Take My Penny." The African Negro aboard Captain Applejack's ship was none other than our treasurer, Jack Harvath.

Even if we weren't in the spotlight executing a major role, we were thrilled with the idea of doing our part to make our plays a success---if only in the role the "backstage crew."

The Future Craftsmen of America is a boys' organization designed to meet the social and avocational needs of high school youth. We had a number of parties this year in which the members participated in any number of activities.

In the past number of years, the boys have purchased new tools and power equipment for the industrial arts shop. This year the project was an extensive educational trip to Detroit, Michigan. The tour was planned to take the boys through an automobile assembly plant, Dearborn village, plus several other educational and recreational centers in Detroit and Chicago. The trip was completely financed through the treasure of the F.C.A. The members were hopeful that the present world crisis would not delay or post-pone their trip.

The elected officers for 1950-51 were--- Jack Harvath, president; Bob Jarvis, vice president; Glenn Huffman, secretary; Harold Goley, treasurer; and Don Garard, sergeant-at-arms.

The time was a Friday morning at 8:35. By the way, it was the first Friday of the month. Reporters were busily passing out the "Wings" to the various homerooms. It looked as if there wouldn't be any studying done during that homeroom period.

Nadine Lippert, the editor, assigned the articles to be written by the reporters. Everyone had a deadline to meet. Nadine checked over the stories that were completed before handing them to Mrs. Kloster, the advisor. The make-up editor Norma Magaw, took the stories, cut them up to fit a certain space, and pasted them on a dummy sheet. The dummy sheet went to the stenography class to be stenciled. Phyllis Fisher and Uelene Etnyre were the ones who made those clever little cartoons to fill up space. Bob Jarvis held the position of sports editor. He wrote a detailed account of all the football, basketball and track that was played. The circulator Carolyn Leigh, sent the finished product to those people out of town who were subscribers and also to other schools who in turn would send back their papers.

If you happened to be in the gym on the first or third Wednesday of the month, you might have thought there was a girls' convention going on. It was nothing quite like that, but it was a meeting of the G.A.A. members.

They had Nadine Lippert as their leader---Carolyn Leigh took over when she wasn't there and helped her in many other ways---Joan Cattoen kept the minutes of the meeting and took care of the necessary correspondence ---Carol Kloeppling reported on the financial situation and collected dues---Uelene Etnyre helped plan their social activities.

Remember the G.A.A. Halloween-Sadie Hawkins Dance; the scramble supper, the night of initiation to which the girls brought their mothers, the sports banquet, the Penny Carnival, the Mother-Daughter Tea?

Do the G.A.A. girls like hikes and picnics? Yessiree! They were rained out when they were to have their second hike last fall, but there's always spring!

"Hic, haec, hoc." Is this Greek to you? To any member of the Latin Club these words were familiar. This group, led by its capable president, Nadine Lippert, met on the fourth Tuesday of every month.

Bob Bernger, the vice-president, helped Nadine plan the meetings. Norma Magaw had the job of secretary and Linda Allen handled the treasurership. The praesidium was Bill Pickering. Is this more Greek to you? To Latin Club members this means the one who announces the club meetings.

The Roman Banquet was our main project of the year. Everyone dressed in traditional Roman costumes and ate just as the Romans did -- with their fingers! Fingers were made before knives and forks, you know.

The Big Four of the coaching field at Oregon High included such lights as Sam Zatkoff, John Nelson, Homer Kuethe, and Ed Gebhardt.

Heading the varsity football team is Mr. Zatkoff, a recent graduate from the University of Illinois where he acquired his Master's Degree and an All-American rating, while coaching the Freshman-Sophomore group during the season of 49-50.

Mr. Kuethe, now in his fourth year of coaching at the high school, is training the varsity basketball squad as well as assistant coach of the varsity football team. He is a graduate of the University of Colorado where he received his Master's in history.

Junior varsity basketball, freshman-sophomore football, and golf coach may all be applied to John Nelson, man of many talents. Mr. Nelson hails from Crystal lake, Minnesota in which state he earned his Master's.

Leading the track champions of 49-50 was Ed Gebhardt, "Dad" to many students, who will again coach the squad. A graduate of N. I. A. T. C. at DeKalb, Illinois, is now at work on his Master's.

Most people think we "O" Club members have it "pretty soft" at Homecoming time, escorting the queen and her attendants down the aisle, but we also had other activities which took work. The old problem of making money was sure to arise, so we sold candy and pop-corn at the games. Near the end of the year we were rewarded for our efforts by throwing a "big shin-dig," and everyone had a good time. This was all done under the supervision of our sponsor, Mr. Zatkoff.

COACH JOHN NELSON

Our team, composed of twenty-five freshmen and sophomores, won only one of the four games which we played. Lady Luck was not with us and we came up against some mighty tough competition. Next year we hope to have a very eventful season with some of our experienced players back.

Lightweight Basketball

The basketball season just didn't last long enough for us Hawklets this year. By the time we were warmed up and ready to really play basketball, the curtain came down on the season. We did win a number of the games, but we would have liked to win several more for our coach, Sam Zatkoff.

Varsity Basketball

Because of the press deadline, this was written before the season was over. To date we had about fifty-fifty season. We started off the season with three losses, but came back with four wins before losing the championship game of the Holiday Tournament. This was followed by three more losses to very stiff competition. Then wins and losses alternated.

Six of the team members will graduate this year. They include: "Skork" Cline, "Fink" Finkbeiner, Jack Harvath, Dick Henderson, "Huffie" Huffman, and Bob Jarvis.

Blackhawk Conference Champs

ROBERT JARVIS

Place first in the 440 yard dash with the time of 55.7. Placed first in the 880 yard dash setting a new school record of 2; 11.5. A member of Oregon's 880 yard dash relay team, which came in second.

RICHARD HAYE

Placed first in the high jump with the height of 5'4". Placed second in the low hurdles. A member of Oregon's 880 yard dash relay team, which came in second.

JAMES HOLDER

Placed fourth in the half mile.
Placed fourth in the mile.

WILLIAM FEARER

Placed second in the 100 yard dash. A member of Oregon's 880 yard relay team, which came in second.

JACK HARVATH

Placed second in the 220 yard dash. Placed fifth in the shot put. Placed fifth in the high jump. A member of Oregon's 880 yard dash relay team, which came in second.

ROBERT WALKER

Placed first in the pole volt with a new school record of 10'9".

Track

The 1950 track team loomed into the "lime-light" and won for Oregon, its first track trophy and conference championship in over twenty-five years. Dick Hayes was high point man for the year. Robert Jarvis established a record for the half mile at the Mendota Relays. Bob Snapp, a member of the Fresh-Soph team, made a new record in the shot put at the conference meet. This team of underclassmen placed second.

Eight lettermen are returning for the 1951 track season. Bob Snapp should be a large help in the discus and shot put along with Roland Hodges who will also compete in the hurdles. Jerry Medlar won the Fresh-Soph conference low hurdles which should give him the needed confidence for varsity competition. Don Black and Jim Holder have a years experience in the distance runs and with their interest and desire the two boys will win their share of points. Don Paul, who has experienced some tough luck with some muscles in the past two years will be out to do his best for his last year of high school competition. Jack Harvath has shown great promise in the dashes when he finished second in the conference 220 yard dash. Bob Jarvis, a most conscientious worker at all times is expected to be a leading half-miler from this part of the state.

The Cast of “Don’t Take My Penny”

Our Senior Prophecy

Mary Beauchem and her brother Ray
Will buy a ship and sail away,
They will constantly travel from port to port
Meeting "fine" ladies for Ray to court.

Shirley Elliott will buy a saloon
And name it "Duane's Crescent Moon,"
Her imported singer Donald Black
Will sing "Clementine" till his voice doth crack.

Carolyn Leigh, as she is tripped
Will say several things that are not in her script
The engineer, Dick Henderson, as mad as he can be Yells, "There goes our contract with N.B.C."

Bob Doeden, the owner of Doeden's, bids,
"I'll give free candy to all the kids,"
June Johnson, the owner of the Oregon Bake Shop,
Says she will give each a cup-cake and strawberry pop.

John Heng, who stuffed the ballot box
Is known in Sing-Sing smashing rocks,
His accomplice, Don Ebens, didn't have the fare
So they left him stay in Chana as local mayor.

At Minskey's in Chicago, Rose Fulton can be seen
Making her first million as a runway queen.
In the very first seat, in the very first row,
Is Roger Hosier, owner of the show.

Nadine Lippert is a hostess at Great Lakes,
It is said by the Tars, "she really takes the cake."

Betty Sarver went along to help the sailors'
singing,
Atop the mast of the U.S.A., Betty's body's swinging.

Shirley Van Vleet, who married a broker,
Threw the poor man in the basement stoker.
Freda Fletcher had the same plan,
But they found out they married, both, the same man.

Jack Harvath, a hero, will receive the Purple Heart.
He was without a weapon when his rifle fell apart.
With the aid of Russell Hogan, they seized the Russian fleet,

And kidnapped Joseph Stalin in an old bed sheet.

Jim Patterson, a naturalist, will make a study of bees,

He will have to give this hobby up when they raid his dungarees.

David Ross, who rooms with Jim, will nearly have a fit
When a yellow jacket goes to sleep where David goes to sit.

Dolores Needham, a hostess for T.W.A.,
Will get air-sick and drop her tray,
Poor Pat Barnhart will skreech and shout,
Forget her parachute and bail out.

Pat DePorter, just for the heck,
Jumped off the porch and broke her neck.
Myron Denekas, who saw the fall,
Ran to the drug store for Hadacol.

Ronnie Finkbeiner, a play boy in New York,
Will have a coat-of-arms of a bottle and a cork.
Dick Cline was disappointed and very very sad
When Fink asked him to come over and meet his
"Old Grand Dad."

Jim "Doby" Holder is a self-made man,
He is now President of the Klu Klux Klan.
He shot at Glenn Huffman and injured his toe,
"That will teach you," he said, "To sing Ole Black Joe."

Eldon Moser will write a book
Telling the ladies how to cook.
Marilyn Johnson, on one of her sprees,
Will choke the author with his own recipes.

Delores Mennenga of honky-tonk fame,
Will teach Sunday School Classes, gambling games.
Poor Fred Mammen, shocked at his spouse,
Will show the kiddies how to cop a "full house."

Joan Cattoen will build a jet,
The "Cattoenerenie" is the name it will get.
She will fly to the moon and pick up Don Paul
Who was sent to the planet for starting a brawl.

A conservation man, Don Williams, will be,
He will play nurse maid to any sick tree.
When he asks Flo Kearns, "Will you be mine?"
She will shyly remark, "Is the specie a pine?"

Bill Burgard, an explorer of the deep,
Layed down in the Pacific and went to sleep.
When he opened his eyes, the sight he couldn't take,
For there was Russ Otten collecting snakes.

Betty Woodworth, a model for Charm,
Will marry her sailor and move to the farm.
She will hire Dick Collins to manicure the cows, Put lip-stick on the chicks, and give Toni's to the sows.

Robert Beaman will write a slogan for A & P
And win a trip to the B. Bar B.
Harold Goley, as a consolation,
Will win a case of "Old Plantation."

LaVerne Gillespie will rent a harem,
But the beautiful girls, he will not share'em.
Donald Hanes, his sceptic buddy,
Says, "That life's not for me, I would rather study."

Robert Jarvis, a General Motor's Man,
Will sell Fisher bodies on the installment plan.
Phyllis Fisher, of anthropologic fame,
Will sue the company for using her name.

Marlene Geiken, agent for the F.B.I.,
Will raid the court house and catch her first spy.
Mary Jane Carlson with a magnifying glass
Will spot fake money that crooks try to pass.

Carol Klopping will work in a jelly-bean plant,
When they ask her to count them, she will say that I can't.
Barbara Lowe worked there, but she wasn't paid,
She ate all the black jelly-beans that she made.

To You

We, the staff of the 1951 annual, wish to express our appreciation to everyone who has helped to make this year's publication of the "Little Blackhawk" possible. Thanks to you, Mr. Ray Farrell, for giving us the picture which appears on the fly leaves and also for developing our candids on the spur of the moment. We also wish to thank the American Yearbook Company, Owatonna, Minnesota; Blankenburg Studios, Kankakee, Illinois; the Students who submitted candids; and LaVerne Gillespie for taking pictures which we vitally needed. Most of all we wish to express our gratitude to Mrs. Shetter, our yearbook sponsor.

Dear Joan,
To a distant cousin
and sweet gal.
Good luck in the fut
two years at G. H. T.
I wish you all the best with your new home.

May your future years
always be happy.

Dear Joan -
It has been lots of fun having
you as a cheerleader.
Of you I send on your young, you'll have it made!
Yours,

To Best Wishes
yours. Hope you have a
next year.
Best regards
sweet girl who is a very good cheerleader.
Sylvia Anderson

To Joanie,
I hope too bad that she's still not come out but well, that's up to her. I'm hoping soon time. (Big job)
May you always have cheerleading fun.
